• Hallway doors being locked when school not in session – Unable to be done.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS
Deborah Haab, Superintendent of Schools discussed the following:
• Safety drills will continually be prepared;
• Notification via K-12 alerts of safety drills will be sent to parents/guardians
• Town of Lloyd Police Department are scheduling a classroom setting training for school administrators
• ID badges required by all faculty and staff
• Enhancing sign-in sheets for visitors
• Facilities improvements (example building entry system) is a high priority

The Board had the following questions/concerns/comments:
• Budget will reflect these enhanced security items during budget time

BOARD PRESIDENT
Alan Barone, Board President, discussed the following:
• As of January 3rd, security personnel have been assigned to each building; two of those have a capability to carry firearms. After verification from legal this is acceptable to have. A short term plan is being established after feedback from the public as well as Town of Lloyd departments and Board members. Board discussion took place regarding the pro’s and con’s of trained security personnel be allowed to carry their fire arms. After discussion, a consensus took place when asked if they approved a security officer, located in the Highland Central School, be allowed to carry firearm:

PUBLIC COMMENT
The following are comments that the public presented regarding safety issues as well as security officials being allowed to carry fire arms:

- Supports an armed officer being placed at main entrance – perhaps more than one individual can be considered;
- Visual police officer offering a safe and secure environment for students
- Armed officers can provide additional protection to students
- Reality of an armed officer in school and how that may negatively affect students
- Security plans for the “before” and “after” school programs (especially at the elementary school)
- Monitoring of camera’s
- K-12 alerts being utilized for security information (ex. planned safety drills)
- Uniform for security officer
- Metal detectors
- Alan Barone gave a brief background of the three individuals that are assigned on a substitute basis until a permanent plan can take place. These individuals are for security purposes only.
  - Pete Watkins – Long-time teacher in Highland; Interim Dean of Students; Former Athletic Director. As a retiree he has extensive knowledge of the District and buildings.
  - Wade Sargent - District’s former School Resource Officer; Retiree of the Town of Lloyd Police Department
  - Sean McCutcheon – Served with New Paltz Police Department; prior experience as a DARE officer; part-time officer with Town of Lloyd
- Tyler Witherspoon, student, spoke about the lack of a social worker at high school and encourages the support of a security officer located in building for after school activities.

CLOSING COMMENT
The Board thanked everyone for coming out and showing their concerns about safety in school. Please continue to show your support especially during budget cycle. Periodic updates with security plans will be discussed at scheduled Board meetings. Any questions or concerns are to be emailed to Superintendent of Schools. The next Board meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, January 8th at 8 pm.
