IV. PUBLIC COMMENTS
The floor was open for public comments. The following comments were made:

- Margaret Malcolm, community member, asked for a brief explanation on how Highland Central School compares with neighboring schools regarding state aid. Deborah Haab gave a brief explanation on the formula the state uses for receiving state aid.
- Fiona Malcolm, community member, expressed her concerns about funds invested in the infrastructure. Thanked everyone for reaching out to honor Ms. Anita Torsone as she celebrated her 100th birthday.
- Holly Brooker, community member and parent, expressed her concern of the recent news on the state budget and state aid; acknowledges the work the Board has done; concern of eliminating programs at school. Parp program kicks off on April 18th and welcomes volunteers.
- Karen Bender, community member and parent, reiterated what Holly Brooker stated and reinforces that the community must reach out to our Senator and Assemblyman.

Conclusion:
Alan Barone articulated that the state needs to reevaluate how state aid is being calculated. Recognized the efforts and time the Board has spent over the past several weeks on placing a well-received school budget proposal.
